

Welcome to Eastgate SDA Church!

A message from Pastor Eric Sayler

Recently I was sitting outside in the evening, enjoying some time with the family and pets. One pet in particular made us chuckle, let me tell you the story.

First, a bit of background:

If you've been around our family much you've probably met Winston. He's a large, white, Golden Retriever. Goldens, having been bred to retrieve birds while hunting, love to carry things around in their mouths and more often than not bring said objects to us to show them off. They do this because it's been bred into them. They're retrievers.

A second piece of background:

When we moved into our home we used river rock in our flower beds. At first it looked nice but we soon realized that we needed to remove it because one of our other Goldens, Sophia, swallowed a rock. Not good! Because of this we have removed nearly every river rock from the back yard and the only ones left are the random scattered stones that we missed here and there.

On this particular evening Winston decided that he was going to help us clean up the rocks! As we watched he would wander across the yard till he found a little stone, gingerly pick it up, and proudly bring it to us, often dropping it at our feet!

He did this over and over till there was a pile of at least twenty rocks that he collected for us!

Obviously he didn't do this because he cared about our landscaping, he did it because he's a retriever. He was simply being true to who he was made to be.

You could say he had integrity. He was living according to his design.

This Sabbath we are starting a new sermon series on the book of Daniel. As we explore Daniel's historical context and as we look at chapter 1 we will see how Daniel, too, lived a life of integrity, living as God had designed him to live.

I'm looking forward to worshipping with you!

You can watch the live stream of the worship service at our Facebook page. Also, you can view past sermons at Facebook, our church Website or on YouTube.

~Blessings, Pastor Eric

Mission Opportunity – "Hope Heals" – A mission to the homeless of Walla Walla

After experiencing Homelessness as a single parent with three children, Annett has formed an organization that in 2016 helped over 2,000 people here in the Walla Walla Valley.

Her organization will be hosting a Yard Sale that she will be having for Hope Heals....on Sunday July 12 at the Village church.

If you might want to donate items for the Yard Sale or even make a monetary donation to Hope Heals, they will be setting up early Sunday morning on the grass in the front of the church starting at 6am.

They are looking for volunteers, donations or anyone who wants to help out in any way to make this a successful fundraiser.

Help spread the word and ask your friends for their help!! It's from 9am to 4pm at The Village Church, College Place, WA.

Up-date on Asher Peterson

Asher received his stem cell transplant last week. During the transplant he had a severe reaction and ended up in the ICU to control his high blood pressure. I know many of you prayed for us as we were going through this, and your prayers were answered. We were very blessed that he responded quickly to the medications they gave him, and, after a good night's sleep, was able to move back to his regular room in the cancer care unit.

At this point we are playing the waiting game. His immune system counts are at zero, as expected. We await the time his numbers start increasing which indicates "engraftment" of the new stem cells. Prayers are appreciated for swift engraftment, for protection from germs while his body has no means to fight them, and for relief from the side effects of his conditioning

Things to Remember Regarding Worship Service at Eastgate on July 11, 2020 at 11:30am

If you plan to attend our service, please remember the following requests:

- Please wear a mask. If you do not have one, one will be provided at the church.
- Please remember social distancing. Individually and as family units.
- Please bring a lawn chair from home to use for the service. If you cannot bring one, a metal folding chair will be available for your use. When you are done using it, please return it to the fellowship room but please DO NOT return it to the rack. The rack will be for sanitized chairs only. Those that have been used will need to be sanitized before being returned to the rack. The Custodian will take care of this. Thank you.
- Please remember that due to social distancing, we ask that only two individuals use the restroom facilities at a time.
- And, as in the rest of our lives we are going to continue social distancing so please keep your children with you. Thank you!

Our Giving to Date this Current Year

Offering for July 11 ~ Women's Ministries

We don't know all of their names. Women invested in Jesus's cause from the beginning. When Jesus traveled, the Twelve went with him, along with Mary Magdalene, Joanna, Susanna, "and many others who provided for Him from their substance" (Luke 8:1-3). Lydia, a businesswoman, became the first follower of Jesus in Europe. Priscilla and her husband, Aquila, hosted Paul in Corinth, Ephesus, and Rome.

Women's investment goes beyond financial. Jesus met a Samaritan woman who became the first evangelist in John's gospel. Mary Magdalene was the first witness of Jesus's resurrection. Tabitha, or Dorcas, shared the gospel through acts of service. Phoebe, a deacon, traveled hundreds of miles to deliver Paul's letter to Rome. Junia, an apostle, went to prison for Jesus's cause.

Our mothers, sisters, and daughters still face unique challenges as we serve Christ together. Women's Ministries provides opportunities and resources for women to experience spiritual growth, freedom from abuse, mentoring, networking, and greater service at home, church, and in the community.

You may not know all of their names, but your investment today will impact the lives of women across this division, for Jesus's cause.

~Raewyn Orlich is a pastor in Victorville, California.

Are you parents who are wondering how you will be able to put your children in an Adventist School this fall?

Please consider applying for Student Financial Aid. Applications Forms should be ready to be picked up July 25.

How Can I continue to give my offerings during this unique time?

Q: What methods are available for giving offerings?

A: 1) Online giving is always available no matter where you are. You can go to the church website; www.eastgatesda.org, select Online Giving and it will automatically take you to Adventistgiving.org and specifically for Walla Walla Eastgate Adventist Church. Here you will find a "tithe envelop" which will allow you to designate a portion to all aspects of church support; Tithe, Local Church Budget Items, Conference/Union Offerings or World Church.

There you will be asked to set up an account. You can determine your method of payment and make your contribution.

A: 2) You can mail a check to the church office.

A: 3) You can drop by the church office and leave your donations.

No matter what method you choose, as a body of Christ, we will continue to appreciate your financial support for all of the ministries of the local, conference, union, division and world church. Thank you for your support.
