

Welcome to Eastgate SDA Church!

A message from Rachelle Santee-Martling, Summer Pastor Intern

About a month ago, a conspiracy theory video called “Plandemic” was shared all over Facebook. A close friend had sent me the link, so I decided to watch it while I took a break from my homework. When I followed the link to YouTube, I discovered the video had been removed. This made me more interested in watching it. I wondered why YouTube would remove the video. I knew the content couldn’t have been inappropriate because of the friend who sent me the link. I began to look up “Plandemic” on google and found another link to the video. I watched it and was very intrigued by its content. It made sense that the government had planned the virus all along. However, as the days progressed and after telling my husband all that I had learned I realized the proof was not there. This was only a theory about the mystery of this covid-19 pandemic.

This Sabbath we will look at Daniel 2 and learn about God’s hand in Babylon as He reveals the mysteries of the future. We will apply God’s divine acts in the story of King Nebuchadnezzar’s forgotten dream to the daily questions we face.

I look forward to worshipping with you here at Eastgate.

~ Rachelle

Mission Opportunity – “Hope Heals” – A mission to the homeless of Walla Walla

After experiencing Homelessness as a single parent with three children, Annett has formed an organization that in 2016 helped over 2,000 people here in the Walla Walla Valley.

Her organization will be hosting a Yard Sale that she will be having for Hope Heals....on Sunday July 12 at the Village church.

If you might want to donate items for the Yard Sale or even make a monetary donation to Hope Heals, they will be setting up early Sunday morning on the grass in the front of the church starting at 6am.

They are looking for volunteers, donations or anyone who wants to help out in any way to make this a successful fundraiser.

Help spread the word and ask your friends for their help!! It's from 9am to 4pm at The Village Church, College Place, WA. (second posting)

Marlien Arriola Obituary

This past Wednesday our friend and sister in Christ, Marlien Arriola, fell asleep in Jesus after a battle with cancer. As I visited with her in the hospital over the past few weeks her faith in Jesus was strong, her humor was present, and her love for you all was clear. Even the pain of cancer didn't dim any of these things.

Marlien has been a beautiful part of the Eastgate church for many years. Among many other ministry roles Marlien was an elder, helping lead our church to know Jesus; she and Harry worked with the youth, mentoring them in their walk with Christ; she led the social committee, creating environments where we could have fun together; and she managed the church office, making sure the pastor stayed organized.

Though Marlien's death leaves a large hole in our lives and church we can be thankful that the next thing she will experience is the blessed hope of Jesus' return! What a day that will be!

Please keep Marlien's husband Harry, as well as their children Crystal, Nikki, and Harry, and their grandchildren in your prayers. Please remember Marlien's father, Frank, and mother Elvira in your prayers, as well.

~Pastor Eric

Up-date on Asher Peterson (second posting)

Asher received his stem cell transplant last week. During the transplant he had a severe reaction and ended up in the ICU to control his high blood pressure. I know many of you prayed for us as we were going through this, and your prayers were answered. We were very blessed that he responded quickly to the medications they gave him, and, after a good night's sleep, was able to move back to his regular room in the cancer care unit.

At this point we are playing the waiting game. His immune system counts are at zero, as expected. We await the time his numbers start increasing which indicates "engraftment" of the new stem cells. Prayers are appreciated for swift engraftment, for protection from germs while his body has no means to fight them, and for relief from the side effects of his conditioning

Things to Remember Regarding Worship Service at Eastgate on July 18, 2020 at 11:30am

If you plan to attend our service, please remember the following requests:

- Please wear a mask. If you do not have one, one will be provided at the church.
- Please remember social distancing. Individually and as family units.

- Please bring a lawn chair from home to use for the service. If you cannot bring one, a metal folding chair will be available for your use. When you are done using it, please return it to the fellowship room but please DO NOT return it to the rack. The rack will be for sanitized chairs only. Those that have been used will need to be sanitized before being returned to the rack. The Custodian will take care of this. Thank you.
- Please remember that due to social distancing, we ask that only two individuals use the restroom facilities at a time.
- And, as in the rest of our lives we are going to continue social distancing so please keep your children with you. Thank you!

Offering July 18 is for Local Church Budget

God never takes a break. July is a summer month perfect for vacations. Some of us are getting ready to spend some leisure time at the lake, in the mountains, or even in a foreign country. We disconnect, leaving behind our work, hectic schedules, and the minutia of the daily grind. Hopefully, we return refreshed and ready for a new cycle of work, family, and routine.

Many know John 3:16 by heart. Its core message is that God loves humanity and came to save it. From the moment humanity chose sin in the Garden of Eden, God never had a day off from His “work.” Every day, the Creator of the universe “shows up for work” by healing, protecting, advising (via the Holy Spirit), admonishing, hoping (for wise choices), crying, and smiling.

Can you imagine the 9-to-5 grind in God’s schedule? The sheer magnitude of God’s presence in our universe at all times and being of service to a fallen humanity is overwhelming — yet encouraging. He is there for us — we can count on Him. At all times!

Let us remember God in the midst of our vacation preparations. God never takes a day off, or a break. He is serving humanity 24 hours a day, every day until His Son returns again.

How Can I continue to give my offerings during this unique time?

Q: What methods are available for giving offerings?

A: 1) Online giving is always available no matter where you are. You can go to the church website; www.eastgatesda.org, select Online Giving and it will automatically take you to Adventistgiving.org and specifically for Walla Walla Eastgate Adventist Church. Here you will find a “tithe envelop” which will allow you to designate a portion to all aspects of church support; Tithe, Local Church Budget Items, Conference/Union Offerings or World Church. There you will be asked to set up an account. You can determine your method of payment and make your contribution.

A: 2) You can mail a check to the church office.

A: 3) You can drop by the church office and leave your donations.

No matter what method you choose, as a body of Christ, we will continue to appreciate your financial support for all of the ministries of the local, conference, union, division and world church. Thank you for your support.

Alaska Southcentral Camp Meeting 2020 is going virtual! The COVID-19 pandemic has raised all kinds of questions about when large groups will be able to meet, or even whether people will be ready for that. In spite of the uncertainty, the spiritual food and camaraderie, the tradition of camp meeting is still important.

So while we won't be meeting in person at Pioneer Peak in Palmer and at other camp meetings throughout the summer, the Alaska Conference has planned an online experience to encourage and connect us. What does Virtual mean? Programming will be accessible from your desktop, your tablet, or your cell phone via the Alaska Conference YouTube channel and Facebook page. Churches that are able to gather in July can even host viewing parties! It all is still happening July 21-25, with programming for all ages, including José Cortez Jr. and Karl Haffner as our featured speakers!

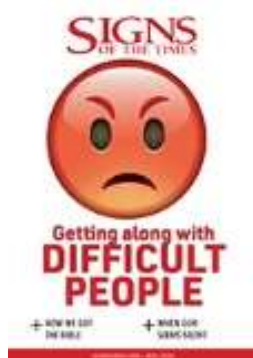

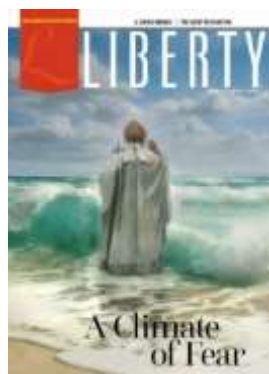

Although you will be joining camp meeting from your home, we are accepting offerings during this time through AdventistGiving in support of Arctic Missions. Southcentral Camp Meeting is one of the major funding sources to help support operations for our AMA workers. Through financial support, you can help keep workers in rural Alaska!

We hope you'll plan to join us for a new way of doing camp meeting. Watch our website, Facebook and check your email for more details as we get closer to the Alaska Conference Virtual Camp Meeting 2020.
