

Welcome to Eastgate SDA Church!

A message from Pastor Eric Saylor

Snow was piling up inch by inch, then ice began to form, it didn't look good.

Stacie, Julianna, and I had just landed in Seattle for an appointment with a doctor and were planning on heading home on the quick, 50 minute flight but as the minutes ticked by it was looking less and less possible to board the plane.

Finally, Wednesday morning, after staying in a hotel, the airline representative said, "it looks likely but we can't guarantee anything. Just show up at the gate and we'll hope you can get home."

No assurance. Not very reassuring!

All we could do was hope and show up ...

This Sabbath we are finishing our series on the book of Daniel. As Daniel finishes writing God did something beautiful: He gave assurance. There was not a "maybe," "What if," or "it's possible." Instead, God gave Daniel, and us, a beautiful promise of assurance.

I hope you can join us!

We will be meeting indoors again. We've blocked off every other pew and we have the fellowship hall set up as an overflow space. Please bring your mask (we have some provided, as well) and enjoy a time of worship with the church family!

We will also be streaming the worship service to Facebook and later uploading to YouTube.

May the Lord bless you with rest this Sabbath.

~Pastor Eric

Offering Appeal for October 3, 2020 ~ Local Church Budget

Financial infidelity. This a term that describes a myriad of actions, activities and attitudes about money hidden from a particular partner. Dr. Bonnie Eaker Weil notes in her book Financial Infidelity that such phenomenon is the number one destroyer of relationships. Many couples feel betrayed by the offending partner's actions done in secret. The surprising revelation in reading the book is that many people do not see themselves financially unfaithful to their partners. The same pervasive attitude is present in the Christian context. In a previous write-up we noted that one third of active Seventh-day Adventist members do not return a faithful tithe. One of the main causes for such unfaithfulness was due to plain forgetfulness. In the Bible the Lord tells us that not returning His tithe and offering is like robbing God (Malachi 3:8). Such a strong statement may be unpalatable. Nevertheless, Scripture makes a very strong point that some of us are financially unfaithful to God. Such financial infidelity may have deeper roots than a simple case of forgetfulness. Being faithful financially to our Lord is a predictor of our long-term relationship with Him. Let us remain faithful to Him.

New Baby Announcement

Tyler & Sophie Webster greeted a new baby this past Thursday ~ Maya Webster

The Webster family increased by one on Thursday, September 24.

When Sophie was asked, "What is your favorite go to place for Tyler to stop when bringing supper home on a busy day?" Sophie replied, "Well, we like them all but I think our favorite is the Graze."

Gift certificates for easy meal prep or to help with child care needs will be greatly appreciated!

We look forward to when the family will be able to bring the little ones back to church. Drop off any gifts at 203 Eagan St., Walla Walla, WA. Tyler's phone is 200-3422.

 Maya Webster, 9 lbs. 3 oz. Mama and baby doing well!

Church Work Bee rescheduled due to air quality concerns

Volunteers Needed to Help Church Work Bee – October 4

Do you have a couple of hours of time that you could help out at the church? We have String Trimming, Removal of Grass, Removal of Dead Shrubs, Perimeter Weeding, Brush Trimming and a variety of things that we could use assistance with. If you can help, please come out from 8:30am – noon! Thank you!

SPECIAL CHRISTMAS MUSIC PROGRAM ~ PLANNING AHEAD!

December 12 is when we have our Christmas Brunch Scheduled for this year. Following our brunch we are planning a Worship Service of Music and Spoken Word.

We are looking for a variety of ALL ages to participate in this service. Children, Parents, Families, Middle Age, Grandparents ~ if you would like to present a song please communicate with the church office now. office@eastgateadventist.church. Thank you for helping us plan ahead. Our prayer is we are able to fill our church sanctuary without any social distancing or other COVID restrictions. Please pray for that Christmas Gift. Thank you.

SPECIAL MUSIC at Eastgate

Would you like to serve the church in song? Maybe you would be willing to provide a special music on any given Sabbath? You can either contact the church office or Kim Boyd. He will once again be leading a team of individuals who will arrange for special music.

School News & Children's Ministry Items

Milton-Stateline Adventist School is doing great with our online learning this year! Starting Oct. 7th students may come in to work at the school for up to 4 hours. We still have a few openings in 1-6th grade at this time. If you are interested call the school office at 541-936-7131.

Parents of Children ~ What to do to keep your child engaged in "Jesus Learning"

Dear Parents; There are a number of individuals who have been looking for exciting quality materials to help you as you minister to your children during this Covid time period. We have shared materials with you from the Alaskan, Southeastern California and Oregon conferences. Last week we shared materials that originated with the Loma Linda church children's ministry team. If you find something which you would like to refer to other families of our church, please share with the office.

Discovering Jesus in the Bible with Jesus 101

Jesus 101 has just launched a new exciting resource for children! Jesus101.tv/4kids features animated videos to help kids discover Jesus in the Bible, a valuable resource for churches, schools, and families. Each 90 second video tells Bible stories in a fun and instructive manner and has a coordinating coloring page that kids can download and color at home!

New Series on Mental Health for Teens Available

Do you know a teen who is struggling with mental health issues? Do you want to be prepared to minister to teens in your church? This new series developed by NAD Youth & Young Adult Ministries includes booklets on depression, anxiety, suicidal thoughts, getting help, recovery tools, brain training, and staying healthy. More information can be found at AdventSource.

Women's Ministry ~ the Sisters Corner

Words specifically for the hearts of women

"The Lord is my strength and shield. I trust him with all my heart. He helps me, and my heart is filled with joy. I burst out in songs of thanksgiving." Psalm 28:7

I love this verse, and it gives me renewed hope and strength. Living 2020 I have needed that every day, if I were to be completely honest with you, due to the current changes in life, my strength and trust have gone down the toilet most days. Change has not been a kind word this year. The amount of stress each woman faces these days has been unreal. I have talked to more women who feel broken, financially drained, alone, and scared because of new challenges and the uncertainty of the future. I too have felt all of the above and cried more tears this year than most, I believe.

The only place I could go to find peace was to my Lord and to His word, and, as I have turned the pages, He tells me I am not a lone; He is there.

The verse starts with, "The Lord is my strength and shield."

What a wonderful promise that we can use God's strength to make it through any of our problems. In fact, God's strength can serve to shield us from the painful darts of worry, fear, and stress. I love this!

The next line of this verse says, "I trust him with all my heart."

Trust Him. The next time you're scared and starting to have a panic attack; instead, say, "I'm going to trust God through this." For me this brings me to a calm and, putting the stress in Bigger Hands, gives me relief that it will be handled right and completely.

The rest of the verse says, "He helps me, and my heart is filled with joy, I burst out in songs of thanksgiving."

This reminds me to look back and remember what God has done for me, from the smallest of miracles to the largest miracles. God has helped me through difficult times, made choices clear, gave me strength to complete a task, helped me not feel alone, and has many times over put a song in my heart.

“So do not throw away this confident trust in the Lord. Remember the great reward it brings.” Hebrews 10: 35

Our lives are different right now, with new challenges. Some of us are taking on new jobs and learning how to stretch a dollar farther.

“Cast your cares on the Lord and He will sustain you; He will never let the righteous be shaken.” Psalm 55:22

MISSION 360° MAGAZINE Several publications, such as Mission Post and Frontline have merged and expanded to create a new official mission magazine of the Seventh-day Adventist church called Mission 360°. It will be published quarterly and you can sign up for an online version at Mission360Mag.org.

There is a limited supply of the two mission 360 magazines in the lobby free to anyone who would like to pick one up for reading at home.

International Missionaries

Eastgate Connection to the Mission Field ~ “The Mission Family”

Many of our Eastgate church family know there is a family working in the mission fields of the Muslim world. They must use a pseudonym to remain safe. We received a new letter from them recently and it will be posted on the bulletin board in the lobby of the church. Please stop by, take a minute or two to read about their lives over the last few months. Remember their names so you can lift them daily in prayer!

Prayer Time ~ Cherishing People ~ "Pray for one another."

We are inviting you to pray for members and friends of our church family each day. Please keep this in a place that will make it easy for you to remember to pray for one another.

"... we do not make requests of You because we are righteous, but because of Your great mercy. O Lord listen! O Lord forgive! O Lord hear and act!"

(Daniel 9:18 & 19. NIV)
