

A message from Pastor Eric Sayler

When I was 5 years old my family made the trip from Tillamook over the Cascade Mountains to Sun River for a vacation. It was wintertime so the pass over Hwy 20 from Salem to Sisters was snowy and slick.

As a kid I wasn't too worried about the roads, I was consumed with watching the beautiful scenery, playing with toys, and dreaming of what we'd do on our holiday.

As the highway descended out of the mountains and approached Black Butte our journey suddenly changed. Not far ahead of us was a red car, on the side of the road, upside down.

Fearing the worst but hoping for the best we carefully pulled over and my dad jumped out of the driver's seat, hurrying over to the inverted vehicle.

There, inside the wrecked car was a lady who had been traveling home to Sister when she hit black ice, began to slide sideways, then caught traction, rolling her car onto its roof.

Thankfully she was completely unhurt, just shaken and pale. Dad and a couple other guys helped unhook her from her belt and eased her out of the car. Next, they led her over to our vehicle and she warmed herself while we waited for EMS to come check her out and a wrecker to deal with her car.

This experience completely changed our journey.

Oh, we still had vacation, but this wreck and helping this lady is all I remember from the trip. It defined that weekend.

This Sabbath we're exploring another journey that was interrupted, an expedition that turned out very differently than what was intended. I hope you can join us!

You can watch online on our Facebook page or you can join in person. We are caring for each other by wearing masks and keeping healthy distance but this won't inhibit visiting and fellowship.

~Pastor Eric

The result for the entire year of Church Budget actually averaged out to $9,658.62 per month. This means that on a monthly basis we were $1,155.38 short of the monthly goal. However, we also had some reduced operating costs along the way so for complete details of how we did, you may want to join in the Church Business Meeting on Zoom this Saturday evening. ## Offering for today ~ Upper Columbia Conference Advance for January 9, 2021

Every year in Alaska, a team of dogs and men take a challenge called the Iditarod. During their 1,000-mile trek, the team works together to achieve the common goal of finishing the race in the town of Nome.

In 1925, the town of Nome had an outbreak of diphtheria. The quickest way to send the antitoxin was by sled dog. Twenty mushers volunteered with over 100 dogs to pull their sleds. They created a relay known at the Great Race of Mercy, which began on January 27.

If the medicine didn't arrive quickly to the town of Nome, many people would perish. So the mushers pooled their resources and created a relay. Each group of dogs and mushers would pass the cylinder, which contained the anti-toxins, to the next team of dogs.

On February 2, at 5:30 a.m., the final leg of the relay arrived in Nome with the dog Balto leading the sled. Today, a statue of Balto is in Central Park, New York City.

There is a toxin of sin that causes all of humankind to perish. We have the anti-toxin, but we who have already been saved need to pass this remedy of Jesus our Savior to others. Through Him, healing may be found.

Our Conference Advance offering goes to help those still dying for want of this cure. "For whatsoever is born of God overcometh the world: and this is the victory that overcometh the world, even our faith." 1 John 5:4

Women's Ministry ~ the Sisters Corner

Ways We as Believers Help:

"We all have talents. God has made sure to give us these, but our talents are not all the same. Some of us are destined to spread the gospel like that of the old disciples. Some of us are meant to care for the disciples and God's people like John, Mary, and Martha. Still yet, others are called to speak to believers and give them hope when we they need it, just like Paul. God has given us all different talents, yet each and every talent correlates to His all-inspiring plan to help save His people. This is one of the meanings of the parable of the talents. In the parable, the business owner is upset with the man who buried his talent and did not put it back into the business because that one talent may have made the difference between finishing the company or destroying it. When you feel that your talent is small and irrelevant, just remember that God uses all talents to bring about His Kingdom, whether small or large. No talent is too small for God because He knew you were the right person to have it."

Churches Should Stay the Course

In a ruling issued recently, the U.S. Supreme Court enjoined the state of New York from implementing gathering restrictions on churches due to COVID. This ruling is specific to the executive order issued by the New York State governor and does not apply nationwide. Until the temporary injunction is appealed, it is important that NPUC churches continue to observe state and local guidelines, and avoid unnecessary risks. For the full NPUC legal review, see nwadventists.com/news/2020/11/churches-advised-stay-course.

No Limits: A Life of Power Series

More than ever, we as Seventh-day Adventist Christians need to proclaim Jesus Christ in word and action. This all starts with us having a close connection with God. It Is Written presents a 6-part revival series, No LIMITS: A Life of Power. This free series is not like any other you've been a part of before. Instead of you simply inviting others to watch someone's presentations, this is a dynamic series where you have an active part. We provide you the link to presentations and you integrate those presentations within a Zoom meeting (or whatever platform you prefer) with church members and friends. The first 30 minutes of the revival series features a presentation by John Bradshaw. The second 30 minutes is led by you or another local facilitator using a worksheet provided by It Is Written in a discussion and then prayer time. To sign up, click here.

It Is Written Invites Churches to Participate in New Virtual Series

More people than ever are wondering what is happening to our world. They are searching for real answers. It is time for the Seventh-day Adventist church to loudly and lovingly proclaim a message for such a time as this. This is what our new evangelism initiative, ACTS 20:21, is all about. ACTS 20:21 is a journey that spans the entire 2021 year with 5 virtual meetings specifically designed for people seeking answers. The climax of the journey is the three-week full-message series in October 2021. You can find information at acts2021.church. Hundreds of churches have already joined ACTS 20:21. If your church hasn't yet, it's not too late.

Bible Tours Offered in 2021

We are excited to once again offer Bible Study Tours led by Dr. Carl Cosaert, Dean of the School of Theology and Professor of Biblical Studies at Walla Walla University. Below is a list of tours in 2021 for you to consider:

March 29 - April 8, 2021 — The Steps of Paul and John Tour will be an unforgettable tour following the steps of the apostles Paul and John in Greece and Turkey. Towns like Athens, Corinth, and Ephesus will no longer be lifeless names on a page. Instead, they will be places full of meaning since you will have visited them yourself.

August 23 - September 3, 2021 — The Steps of Jesus Tour will be an extraordinary journey to Jordan and Israel that will bring the stories of Jesus and the early church to life unlike anything you have experienced before. Walking through the countryside in Galilee where Jesus often taught and seeing the remains of an ancient boat that dates back to Jesus time bring to life Biblical stories in a not to be forgotten way. Visiting the Nazareth Village provides an opportunity to see what life in Galilee would have been like in the time of Jesus.

December 13 – 23, 2021 – The Egypt Bible Tour will find you standing in front of the ancient Pyramids of Giza experiencing the same awe that Joseph felt when he stood before them nearly four thousand years ago. Visiting the spectacular monuments in ancient Thebes you will impress you with the courage and faith Moses had to have in God in order to stand up to the mighty Pharaoh of Egypt.

You will encounter many more experiences than those listed. Dr. Cosaert will be both your teacher and guide for all three tours. He has carefully chosen the best sites, hotel accommodations and restaurants to ensure your tour will be an amazing experience. For a complete itinerary and cost for the tour or tours you would like to join, please email Sharon Searson at sharons@uccsda.org or go to www.adventours.org.

Poetry Corner - Introduction

Do You Love Poetry? Do you have a poem you would like to submit? Over the last year we included in our e-NewsLetter a crossword puzzle which corresponded to the Adult Sabbath School Lesson. For those who enjoyed that and would like to continue it as a past-time, please feel free to follow this link to puzzles on a weekly basis: <https://sdapuzzles.com/>

This quarter I thought I would explore a different path for our readers. A place of poetry, reflecting the values of one who is on the Christian journey. If you would like to submit a poem to be shared, please send it by email to the church office at office@eastgateadventist.church or by USPS to our Eastgate SDA Church mail box at 380 N. Tausick Way, Walla Walla, WA 99362, or drop it off on Sabbath at the office.

Make sure I have your name and contact information along with the author of the poem and the source you found. It.

“A” Through “Z” author unknown

Although things are not perfect

Because of trial or pain,

Continue in thanksgiving

Do Not begin to blame.

Even when the times are hard,

Fierce winds are bound to blow,

God is forever, able.

Hold on to what you know.

Imagine life without His love;

Joy would cease to be.

Keep thanking Him for all the things

Love imparts to thee.

Move out of “Camp Complaining.”

No weapon that is known

On earth can yield the power

Praise can do alone.

Quit looking at the future

Redeem the time at hand.

Start every day with worship;

To “thank” is a command.

Until we see Him coming

Victorious in the sky,

We’ll run the race with gratitude

Xalting God most high.

Yes, there’ll be good times and

Yes, some will be had, ... but

Zion Waits in glory

Where non are ever sad!
