

Welcome to Eastgate SDA Church!

A message from Pastor Eric Sayler

Change is always hard.

Last weekend we had a pretty big change happen in our home. Our dog, Ellie, gave birth to 10 healthy puppies!

They are the cutest, most helpless, blind and deaf little sausages you could ever meet! They bring a lot of happiness to our home.

That said, these puppies change a lot of things in our lives. From making sure they are growing properly, to ensuring that Ellie is healing well, to lost sleep as we check on them around the clock, babies change things.

Change is always hard.

Sometimes change is exciting, something you've been looking forward to. Other times it's heartbreaking. No matter what the change is, good or bad, it's hard.

This Sabbath we are continuing our study in the book of Acts and approach a huge change that happens in the church as the gospel expands beyond the borders of Judaism. I hope you can join us for our study "Acts of the Spirit: You Belong, part 2."

We'll be both streaming the service on our Facebook page and gathering in person with love-centered precautions. I hope you can join in!

~Pastor Eric

Our Church Budget Giving to Date this Current Year2021

January 30, 2021 - Local Church Budget

Have you ever attended church in a house? There are many home churches across America. But home churches are easy to outgrow!

One of these house churches in Vermont, the Brattleboro church, stepped forward by faith in outreach to their community. As the congregation grew, it became obvious they needed a new location to become even more effective for the Lord. The house itself could no longer handle the various ministries and the growth of the congregation.

They brought the matter before the Lord.

Land opened in the adjacent town of Vernon, and the members raised funds to move to the new location. Week by week, the members gave according to their abilities. The church project went forward, and construction began on the new building. The new structure started as only a dream in the hearts of the members. Today faithful members worship in their beautiful building.

Members are able to have a wider impact in the community. The community is grateful for their presence. When God's people come together for the Lord and follow the dream that the Lord placed in their hearts, great things will happen.

Today, as you give to the local church budget, ask God to place in your heart a vision for your church. Catch the inspiration of how your congregation can bless your community. Look for the greater mission to souls who will come and praise our wonderful Savior. "Where there is no vision, the people perish." Proverbs 29:18

February is the month of love and your Children's Ministry team would like to offer you two opportunities to spread that love.

First Event; load your kids in the car and some nonperishable food items for a food drive February 6 and come to the church parking lot between 4:00 & 5:00 pm.

Grab a hot chocolate and cookie and say hello to those you may not have seen for a while. Let's still do our best in wearing our masks (when not drinking) and keeping a bit of distance. This will stay outdoors so let's hope for great weather, but dress warm.

For those that would prefer, there is a bin in the lobby to place items in until Sabbath, Feb. 6.

Please contact Tess (509\) 200-9390 or the church office if you are a family that needs some food, otherwise food collected will be donated to Eden's Pantry.

A Second Event; a family drive by and flower delivery for our shut in members February 20 following church. More details to follow.

Thank you for coming to these events and giving an opportunity for our kids to see love in action. Open to all church members! All are welcome!!!

COVID-19 Vaccines: Addressing Concerns, Offering Counsel

The Loma Linda University schools of pharmacy and public health have partnered with the General Conference department of health ministries and the Biblical Research Institute to address some of the rumors and conspiracies regarding the COVID-19 vaccines. The full article from the Adventist Review can be read at <https://www.adventistreview.org/church-news/story15816-covid-19-vaccines-addressing-concerns,-offering-counsel>.

SPECIAL MUSIC at Eastgate

Would you like to serve the church in song? Maybe you would be willing to provide a special music on any given Sabbath? You can either contact the church office or Kim Boyd. He will once again be leading a team of individuals who will arrange for special music.

Actively Pursuing Better Health

Sow a Thought, Reap a Word

Many of our thoughts and words just pop in our head and are said without much analysis or verification of whether they are true.

“Sow a thought, reap a word.

Sow a word, reap an action.

Sow an action, reap a habit.

Sow a habit, reap a character.

Sow a character, reap a destiny.”

There are quite a number of variations on this quote and it is attributed to nearly as many people. But is it true? What connection does it have to goals or health?

Have you ever told yourself that something is too hard? Maybe you have said “I can’t ____ (fill in the blank)” or “I know I should ____ but I just don’t have time (money, energy, etc.).” That thought and those words have an impact on our actions. They may, in fact, be the root of success or failure. The problem is that many of our thoughts and words just pop in our head and are said without much analysis or verification of whether they are true. They are also often accompanied by emotions that contribute to a negative outcome. How do we deal with those automatic thoughts and feelings?

It isn’t easy. There are no quick standard answers to changing deeply engrained thought patterns. But there is hope. 2 Corinthians 10:3-5 (NIV) says: “For though we live in the world, we do not wage war as the world does. The weapons we fight with are not the weapons of the world. On the contrary, they have divine power to demolish strongholds. We demolish arguments and every pretension that sets itself up against the knowledge of God, and we take captive every thought to make it obedient to Christ.” Have you ever tried to stop thinking about something? The only way to do that is to start thinking about something else. This Scripture says to put our thoughts in jail if needed to make them obedient to Christ. We have divine power in our artillery! Focusing on Jesus and the truth of who we are in Him will captivate our thoughts and thus our words and actions.

Sometimes we can't do this on our own. We need the help of another to bring about the changes we need in our thinking patterns. Please know that there is no shame in seeking professional help from a counselor to teach us new thinking patterns. Cognitive behavioral therapy is a highly effective counseling technique that is consistent with Biblical principles. Let's fight with every tool we have at our disposal to become physically, mentally, and spiritually healthy for His glory.

Letter From UCC President Regarding COVID and Call to Action

As we reflect on 2020, it was a year of challenge like none we have faced in more than a century. Several of our churches have experienced COVID-19 outbreaks and members have gone to their rest. These are not faceless statistics of some far-off land — these are our family members, our neighbors, and our friends. These losses are increasing at an alarming rate. No Limits: A Life of Power Series

More than ever, we as Seventh-day Adventist Christians need to proclaim Jesus Christ in word and action. This all starts with us having a close connection with God. It Is Written presents a 6-part revival series, No LIMITS: A Life of Power. This free series is not like any other you've been a part of before. Instead of you simply inviting others to watch someone's presentations, this is a dynamic series where you have an active part. We provide you the link to presentations and you integrate those presentations within a Zoom meeting (or whatever platform you prefer) with church members and friends. The first 30 minutes of the revival series features a presentation by John Bradshaw. The second 30 minutes is led by you or another local facilitator using a worksheet provided by It Is Written in a discussion and then prayer time. To sign up, click here.

Contribute Using the Lowest Fees Possible

AdventistGiving negotiates the lowest possible fees for online giving. These costs are shared by the local conference (70%), union conference (10%), North American Division (10%), and General Conference (10%). When donating, please consider using ACH (electronic check or savings) as your payment method to help keep costs to a minimum.

For your reference (1st quarter 2020 fees):

- ACH (electronic check or savings account) averaged 19 cents each
- Debit cards averaged 0.63% of the amount donated
- Credit cards averaged 2.18% of the amount donated

Bible Tours Offered in 2021

We are excited to once again offer Bible Study Tours led by Dr. Carl Cosaert, Dean of the School of Theology and Professor of Biblical Studies at Walla Walla University. Below is a list of tours in 2021 for you to consider:

March 29 - April 8, 2021 — The Steps of Paul and John Tour will be an unforgettable tour following the steps of the apostles Paul and John in Greece and Turkey. Towns like Athens, Corinth, and Ephesus will no longer be lifeless names on a page. Instead, they will be places full of meaning since you will have visited them yourself.

August 23 - September 3, 2021 — The Steps of Jesus Tour will be an extraordinary journey to Jordan and Israel that will bring the stories of Jesus and the early church to life unlike anything you have experienced before. Walking through the countryside in Galilee where Jesus often taught and seeing the remains of an ancient boat that dates back to Jesus time bring to life Biblical stories in a not to be forgotten way. Visiting the Nazareth Village provides an opportunity to see what life in Galilee would have been like in the time of Jesus.

December 13 – 23, 2021 – The Egypt Bible Tour will find you standing in front of the ancient Pyramids of Giza experiencing the same awe that Joseph felt when he stood before them nearly four thousand years ago. Visiting the spectacular monuments in ancient Thebes you will impress you with the courage and faith Moses had to have in God in order to stand up to the mighty Pharaoh of Egypt.

You will encounter many more experiences than those listed. Dr. Cosaert will be both your teacher and guide for all three tours. He has carefully chosen the best sites, hotel accommodations and restaurants to ensure your tour will be an amazing experience. For a complete itinerary and cost for the tour or tours you would like to join , please email Sharon Searson at sharons@uccsda.org or go to www.adventours.org.

Summer Openings Available at Camp MiVoden

Book on Difficult Communication Now Available at AdventSource

Tired of tone-deaf dialogues? Angry online exchanges? Misunderstandings? Seeking an Understanding by Seth Pierce, PhD, makes communication research accessible for those who want to have better conversations. It combines interpersonal and intercultural communication principles, with a practical pastoral approach. At the end of each chapter you will find a few reflections and exercises that will challenge you to dig deeper into what you really understand and believe. This book is an ideal starting point for anyone feeling overwhelmed and confused by the communicative chaos of the world around them. For more information, see www.adventsource.org/store/pastors-resources/leadership/seeking-an-understanding-40639.

Down in my Life

By Jill Briscoe

Down in my life where it's restless and wild,
Down in my life where the adult's a child,
Down in my fears and worries and care
Suddenly Jesus is there.

Touching my heart strings He sings me a song,
Quiets the child till she's steady and strong,
Banishes worries – just smiles them away
Turning my night into day.

Down in my life where the troubles run deep,
Down in my life when I can't get to sleep,
Down in my life when life isn't fair,
Suddenly Jesus is there.

Rebuking the turmoil; He sends it away,
Gives peace in the panic and helps me to pray.
Turns sorrow to praising, surprises my pain,
And bids me to face life again.

Down in my life where I'm lonely and old,
Deep in my heart when my spirit is cold,
Down in my life when I don't know what's best
Suddenly Jesus gives rest.

"Gift doesn't age" He remarks with a smile,
"I'll set your soul dancing and make life
worthwhile,

I'll guide you in righteousness: wisdom's
delight:

And nerve your faint heart for the fight."

He stands in my shadows and the light on His face

reflects all His love and His mercy and grace
Right down in my life where nobody goes:
Deep in "this" heart the Lord knows.

Down in my life where it's restless and wild,
Down in my life where the adult's a child,
Down in my soul I'm acutely aware
Suddenly Jesus is there!

Are you in a service industry? Would you like your church family to be aware of what services you can provide? Please consider placing an ad in this space. At this time, to place an advertisement here will not cost any money. It should only be basic text with no illustrations or photos. To add graphics may or may not be possible based on time and graphic software available. Thank you, Office Manager.

Submit your service ads to the following email address: office@eastgateadventist.church Weekly Deadline: Items must be received prior to 8:00am Wednesday mornings.

Thank you for your positive feedback and comments. Sincerely, Eastgate SDA Office Manager
