

Welcome to Eastgate SDA Church!

A message from Student Pastor Rachelle Martling

Before I switched my major to Theology, I wanted to look at other Universities outside of Walla Walla University. As I was visiting the Theology department at another school, I had the privilege of meeting another potential student who was visiting from New York. I will never forget his story.

Both of us were sitting in the Theology Department's office waiting for a tour of the department. One of the professors started talking to us about the different programs they offered and asking us about our callings to ministry. This young man began to share his story and why he was interested in studying Theology. He was at least a third generation Adventist and could speak seven different languages. His ministry in New York resulted in dozens of youth and other people being baptized. The conference knew about his ministry and wanted to hire him. After being encouraged by his mentors from church he decided to look at completing a Theology degree.

As he shares his story, he asked the important question, "What will these things add towards my education?"

The professor responded with, "They will look good on your resume."

I couldn't help but feel sorry for this person next to me who was working so hard for the Lord but would have to start at the bottom of the Theology program. His works could not earn him a degree.

Nicodemus experienced a similar experience when he came to see Jesus one night. Nicodemus believed his works and his Jewish heritage would be enough to earn salvation. How disappointing it was to find out that his works gained him nothing. Instead he learned that salvation comes only through Jesus.

Join us tomorrow as we explore, Nicodemus Finds Salvation.

As always we will be streaming the service online. You can join in person, as well. We have masks available for use and will be following COVID precautions.

Offering Appeal for February 13, 2021 NAD Evangelism

The young lad told his mother the news. Jesus, the Miracle Worker, would preach by the Sea of Galilee that day. He wanted to see Jesus. His mother packed him a lunch. The boy didn't realize that what he had in his hand would touch the lives of thousands that day and for centuries to come. He arrived early and found a front-row seat. He never remembered his lunch until near evening. Then he heard the Master speaking to the disciples about a need for food. He offered Jesus all the food he had.

Jesus thanked him and asked the multitude to sit down. He “took the five loaves, and the two fishes, and looking up to heaven, he blessed, and brake, and gave the loaves to his disciples, and the disciples to the multitude.” Matthew 14:19

That day, 5,000 men, plus women and children, ate their fill of warm bread and salted fish. Jesus told them to gather up the leftovers. Can’t you see the boy filling his bag with the miracle food and rushing home to share with his mother?

Not one of the four gospel writers tells us his name. But his actions are recorded for all eternity. As we give today to support evangelistic efforts throughout the North American Division, I want to ask you, what do you have in your hand? God can take the offering you have in your hand and by His touch multiply your offering to bless the lives of thousands.

Eastgate Church News & Events

February is the month of love and your Children’s Ministry team would like to offer you one more event this month, another opportunity to spread that love.

A Second Event; a family drive by and flower delivery for our shut in members February 20 at 2:45pm. Meet in the church parking lot.

Thank you for coming to these events and giving an opportunity for our kids to see love in action.

Open to all church members! All are welcome and encouraged!!!

SPECIAL MUSIC at Eastgate

Would you like to serve the church in song? Maybe you would be willing to provide a special music on any given Sabbath? You can either contact the church office or Kim Boyd. He will once again be leading a team of individuals who will arrange for special music.

Walla Walla University Music Department

This last year has been an interesting one. It has been almost a year since most of our ensembles were able to perform and worship together in person. This quarter, music ensembles including ICantori, Brass Choir, and Orchestra were approved to meet in person following social distancing and guidelines. Tonight we are excited to share a prerecorded Vespers program featuring these three ensembles as well as performances by students of Dr. Christine Janis, Dr. Jinhyang Park, and Professor Brandon Beck. While we are unable to meet in person for this event, we invite you to join us tonight at 8 p.m. at the link below to gather and enjoy the music that our students have been working so hard to prepare for you. The program file is also attached for your information.

Here is the new link with the program and a link to the video on it:

Actively Pursuing Better Health

Is Sitting the New Smoking?

One could almost get the impression that it would be safer to smoke than to sit at your desk and work. But is this true? Cindy Williams, RN, health ministries coordinator for Upper Columbia Conference, takes a closer look at how your health is impacted by inactivity. Read the full story at news.uccsda.org/3q12qPL.

Walla Walla Valley SDA News

Walla Walla University's Discovery Preschool is still enrolling children ages 3-5 for this year. We offer am or pm half days. If your child is in Kindergarten half days, we can help. We teach Bible stories, pre-reading/math & social skills. A parent recently noted, "My kindergartener wants to return to your preschool." For information see www.wallawalla.edu/preschool or email Stacy at stacy.maxted@wallawalla.edu.

SONBRIDGE CONSTITUENCY MEETING: will be held on Sunday, February 21, 2021 at 10:00 AM. The agenda will include inspiring financial and development reports of God's blessings and an update of future plans. This constituency session is for designated delegates, but interested parties are welcome to attend! This will be a ZOOM meeting. Please contact SonBridge for an invitation and information. Thank each of you for your amazing support.

COVID-19 Vaccine Facts and Myths

The development of the COVID-19 vaccines brings hope for a better tomorrow. It also inspires myths and rumors, which can spread quickly on social media. Adventist Health has compiled a quick list of facts and myths about the COVID-19 vaccines. For the full story, see www.adventisthealth.org/blog/2021/january/facts-and-myths-about-the-covid-19-vaccine/.

Should You Get the Vaccine? Or Not?

With conspiracy theories and misinformation, it can be difficult to discern how to proceed with the COVID-19 vaccine. Cindy Williams, RN, UCC health ministry's coordinator, takes a closer look at the vaccine. Read more of the story at www.uccsda.org/should-you-get-the-vaccine-or-not.

Letter From UCC President Regarding COVID and Call to Action

As we reflect on 2020, it was a year of challenge like none we have faced in more than a century. Several of our churches have experienced COVID-19 outbreaks and members have gone to their rest. These are not faceless statistics of some far-off land — these are our family members, our neighbors, and our friends. These losses are increasing at an alarming rate. Read the rest of the letter at www.uccsda.org/letter-from-the-president-regarding-covid-and-call-to-action

Minds Differ, So Assume the Best

In this article from the Adventist Review, Ty Gibson reminds that in these politically charged times, it is important to handle our differences God's way. For the full article, see www.adventistreview.org/minds-differ-so-assume-the-best.

Contribute Using the Lowest Fees Possible

AdventistGiving negotiates the lowest possible fees for online giving. These costs are shared by the local conference (70%), union conference (10%), North American Division (10%), and General Conference (10%). When donating, please consider using ACH (electronic check or savings) as your payment method to help keep costs to a minimum.

For your reference (1st quarter 2020 fees):

- ACH (electronic check or savings account) averaged 19 cents each
- Debit cards averaged 0.63% of the amount donated
- Credit cards averaged 2.18% of the amount donated

Bible Tours Offered in 2021

We are excited to once again offer Bible Study Tours led by Dr. Carl Cosaert, Dean of the School of Theology and Professor of Biblical Studies at Walla Walla University. Below is a list of tours in 2021 for you to consider:

March 29 - April 8, 2021 — The Steps of Paul and John Tour will be an unforgettable tour following the steps of the apostles Paul and John in Greece and Turkey. Towns like Athens, Corinth, and Ephesus will no longer be lifeless names on a page. Instead, they will be places full of meaning since you will have visited them yourself.

August 23 - September 3, 2021 — The Steps of Jesus Tour will be an extraordinary journey to Jordan and Israel that will bring the stories of Jesus and the early church to life unlike anything you have experienced before. Walking through the countryside in Galilee where Jesus often taught and seeing the remains of an ancient boat that dates back to Jesus time bring to life Biblical stories in a not to be forgotten way. Visiting the Nazareth Village provides an opportunity to see what life in Galilee would have been like in the time of Jesus.

December 13 – 23, 2021 – The Egypt Bible Tour will find you standing in front of the ancient Pyramids of Giza experiencing the same awe that Joseph felt when he stood before them nearly four thousand years ago. Visiting the spectacular monuments in ancient Thebes you will impress you with the courage and faith Moses had to have in God in order to stand up to the mighty Pharaoh of Egypt.

You will encounter many more experiences than those listed. Dr. Cosaert will be both your teacher and guide for all three tours. He has carefully chosen the best sites, hotel accommodations and restaurants to ensure your tour will be an amazing experience. For a complete itinerary and cost for the tour or tours you would like to join , please email Sharon Searson at sharons@uccsda.org or go to www.adventours.org.

Book on Difficult Communication Now Available at AdventSource

Tired of tone-deaf dialogues? Angry online exchanges? Misunderstandings? Seeking an Understanding by Seth Pierce, PhD, makes communication research accessible for those who want to have better conversations. It combines interpersonal and intercultural communication principles, with a practical pastoral approach. At the end of each chapter you will find a few reflections and exercises that will challenge you to dig deeper into what you really understand and believe. This book is an ideal starting point for anyone feeling overwhelmed and confused by the communicative chaos of the world around them. Every Social Interaction Matters – Even Digitally!

You've read the social media posts before — the ones that make you cringe, angry, hurt, sad, depressed, or simply numb. By the way some "Christians" post online, you might think they don't realize there is a real person(s) somewhere in the world reading and contemplating their potentially destructive words. Every encounter we have with one another matters. For more of this story, go to www.nadadventist.org/news/every-encounter-matters-digital-encounters-included

Faith For Today

Faith for Today is a television ministry of the North America Division, committed to sharing God's grace with the world through broadcast media. That has been our vision since 1950, when Faith For Today launched its live inspirational television drama on ABC from New York City. That was more than 65 years ago and we are now the longest running religious television broadcast in the world!

We want your congregation to know about Faith For Today, producer of the show Lifestyle Magazine and where they can watch us. Would you be willing to share this information in one or two of your upcoming bulletins?

Lifestyle Magazine is a half hour television talk show focused on living a full, healthy and balanced life. It is the second longest show on the air after “Meet the Press.” The show features panel discussions, interviews and demonstration segments focused on whole life health, including fitness, nutrition, relationships, outlook and more. This multiple award-winning show reaches a wide age demographic and covers a wide variety of topics. It was recently voted a Top 20 brand influencer for health & fitness on Twitter (above Shape Magazine, GQ and more) by analyst group Onalytica.

Each week, you can view our programs on the following:

- Uplift TV
- Direct TV channel 368 or 378
- Hope Channel
- NRB Network – Tuesdays at 4:30pm on Direct TV Channel 378
- faithfortoday.tv
- lifestyle.org
- Roku • Apple TV • AmazonFire TV

Please be sure to check these network’s websites for air times and dates or call our office at (805) 955-7681. Thank you for sharing this information with your congregation. May God bless you and your church family.

Sincerely, Chauncey Smith; The AMS Agency/Station Relations Director

Advent Hands

I see the hands of Joseph.
Back and forth along bare wood they move.
There is worry in those working hands, sorting out confusing thoughts with every stroke.
“How can this be, my beautiful Mary now with child?”
Rough with deep splinters, these hands, small, painful splinters like tiny crosses embedded deeply in this choice to stay with her.
He could have closed his hands to her,
said, “No” and let her go to stoning.
But, dear Joseph opened both his heart and hands
to this mother and her child.
Preparing in these days before with working hands
and wood pressed tight between them.
It is these rough hands that will open and be the first to hold the Child.

I see the hands of John,
worn from desert raging storms and plucking locusts from sand ripped rocks beneath the remnant of a Bethlehem star.
A howling wind like some lost wolf cries out beneath the moon, or was that John?
This loneliness,
enough to make a grown man mad.
He’s waiting for this, God’s whisper.
“Go now. He is coming.
You have prepared your hands enough.

Go. He needs your servant hands, your cupping hands to lift the water, and place his feet upon the path to service and to death.
Go now, John, and open your hands to him.
It is time.”

I see a fist held tight and fingers blanched to white.
Prying is no easy task.
These fingers find a way of pulling back to old positions,
protecting all that was and is.
Blanched to white. No openness. All fright.
But then the Spirit comes.
A holy Christmas dance begins and blows between the twisted paths.
This fist opens slowly,
gently,
beautifully,
the twisted fingers letting go.
Their rock-solid place in line has eased.
And one by one the fingers lift
True color is returned
And through the deepest of mysteries,
The holiest of holies,
O longing of longings
Beyond all human imagining
this fist,
as if awakened from Lazarus’ cold stone dream reaches out to hold the tiny newborn hand of God.
