

Welcome to Eastgate SDA Church!

A message from Pastor Eric Sayler

When I was in Seminary I got to experience a part of God's church that many don't get to see. Each Thursday the student association would set up a table in the common area of the building and serve breakfast (no, this isn't the unique experience, hang on!) One Thursday as I stood in line to pick up a bagel and some fruit I paused for a second, stilled my thoughts and listened. Ahead of me were some friends from Korea who were speaking their native tongue. Behind me were some friends from Africa, I'm not sure which country, who were passionately processing some topic they had just discussed in class.

To my left and right were Spanish speakers, a classmate from Japan, and a couple from Sweden smiled at each other and shared a private thought in Swedish.

In that moment I couldn't understand one word. It was beautiful!

What an amazing experience of the church this was. It's international. It's diverse. It's beautiful.

There was a problem, though. I couldn't join in!

Being monolingual I'm stuck enjoying the sounds of the world's languages but I can't understand much of them.

This reminded me of something important: If we're going to communicate with people and serve them we have to get to know them, their language, and the way they live.

This Sabbath we're looking at a story in Acts 17 where Paul had to do this very thing. He had to listen, watch, and learn before he could share anything with others. I hope you can join us as we explore this significant story!

You're welcome to worship online through our Facebook live stream.

You're also welcome to worship in person. Thanks for respecting each other by properly wearing masks and distancing.

March 6, 2021 ~ Local Church Budget

One Sabbath morning, the deacon-in-charge arrived at church only to discover standing water in the church basement.

He began making phone calls. “There are several inches of water in the basement! Can you come to help clean up the mess?”

Most of the deacons changed from their Sabbath clothes to flannel shirts and jeans and hurried to the church. They gathered sump pumps, hoses, extension cords, and began to drain the water. They closed all the waterlines to make sure it wasn’t a frozen line that ruptured.

When they first heard the news, some members worried about the coming repair bills. “How will we be able to pay for this?” they asked one another.

However, the head deacon smiled and reassured them, “Our church emergency repair fund will take care of the expense. We have money set aside for unexpected events like this.” The members were thankful that through their faithful giving to the church budget in the past, there did not need to be any delay in getting repairs. The head deacon made a call to the local construction firm that Monday. Within two weeks, the workers had repaired the damage.

The congregation could once again meet in their fellowship hall and Sabbath School classrooms.

The Bible says, “And God is able to make all grace abound toward you; that ye, always having all sufficiency in all things, may abound to every good work.” 2 Corinthians 9:8

Outdoor Filming Workshop

Many have shared how much they enjoyed the Outdoor Filming Workshop last weekend. Blue Mountain TV has decided to rebroadcast that workshop so that more people can enjoy it. Join us as we head out into the forest to film local musician Tim Greenlaw play his guitar and sing a beautiful song. During this 2 hour production, you will learn some fundamentals of outdoor videography and how to capture great audio. Blue Mountain Television will rebroadcast this workshop on February 28 at 5 p.m., March 1 at 8 a.m., and March 6 at 6 p.m. at bmt.tv.

Days of Noah Starts This Weekend

The history of our world is etched into the earth itself. The evidence of a global judgment in the past is an irrevocable warning of another judgment yet to come, "for as it was in the days of Noah so that it will be at the coming of the Son of Man." (Matthew 24:37). This four-part documentary series will open to view the prophecies of the last days by looking back to the days of Noah. Join us each Saturday night at 7 in March for this four-part series. Part 1, "The Flood," will air on March 6 at 7 pm. Catch a half-hour preview of this series on February 28 at 6:30 pm, March 2 at 6 pm, and March 5 at 8:30 am. To watch the series go to bmt.tv.

COVID-19 Vaccine Facts and Myths

The development of the COVID-19 vaccines brings hope for a better tomorrow. It also inspires myths and rumors, which can spread quickly on social media. Adventist Health has compiled a quick list of facts and myths about the COVID-19 vaccines. For the full story, see

- Credit cards averaged 2.18% of the amount donated

Bible Tours Offered in 2021

We are excited to once again offer Bible Study Tours led by Dr. Carl Cosaert, Dean of the School of Theology and Professor of Biblical Studies at Walla Walla University. Below is a list of tours in 2021 for you to consider:

March 29 - April 8, 2021 — The Steps of Paul and John Tour will be an unforgettable tour following the steps of the apostles Paul and John in Greece and Turkey. Towns like Athens, Corinth, and Ephesus will no longer be lifeless names on a page. Instead, they will be places full of meaning since you will have visited them yourself.

August 23 - September 3, 2021 — The Steps of Jesus Tour will be an extraordinary journey to Jordan and Israel that will bring the stories of Jesus and the early church to life unlike anything you have experienced before. Walking through the countryside in Galilee where Jesus often taught and seeing the remains of an ancient boat that dates back to Jesus time bring to life Biblical stories in a not to be forgotten way. Visiting the Nazareth Village provides an opportunity to see what life in Galilee would have been like in the time of Jesus.

December 13 – 23, 2021 – The Egypt Bible Tour will find you standing in front of the ancient Pyramids of Giza experiencing the same awe that Joseph felt when he stood before them nearly four thousand years ago. Visiting the spectacular monuments in ancient Thebes you will impress you with the courage and faith Moses had to have in God in order to stand up to the mighty Pharaoh of Egypt.

You will encounter many more experiences than those listed. Dr. Cosaert will be both your teacher and guide for all three tours. He has carefully chosen the best sites, hotel accommodations and restaurants to ensure your tour will be an amazing experience. For a complete itinerary and cost for the tour or tours you would like to join , please email Sharon Searson at sharons@uccsda.org or go to www.adventours.org.

Book on Difficult Communication Now Available at AdventSource

Tired of tone-deaf dialogues? Angry online exchanges? Misunderstandings? Seeking an Understanding by Seth Pierce, PhD, makes communication research accessible for those who want to have better conversations. It combines interpersonal and intercultural communication principles, with a practical pastoral approach. At the end of each chapter you will find a few reflections and exercises that will challenge you to dig deeper into what you really understand and believe. This book is an ideal starting point for anyone feeling overwhelmed and confused by the communicative chaos of the world around them. Every Social Interaction Matters – Even Digitally!

You've read the social media posts before — the ones that make you cringe, angry, hurt, sad, depressed, or simply numb. By the way some "Christians" post online, you might think they don't realize there is a real person(s) somewhere in the world reading and contemplating their potentially destructive words. Every encounter we have with one another matters. For more of this story, go to www.nadadventist.org/news/every-encounter-matters-digital-encounters-included

PhoneFaith Offers Daily Call-in Inspiration

PhoneFaith is a new outreach ministry from Christian Record Services for the Blind. Faith For Today

Faith for Today is a television ministry of the North America Division, committed to sharing God's grace with the world through broadcast media. That has been our vision since 1950, when Faith For Today launched its live inspirational television drama on ABC from New York City. That was more than 65 years ago and we are now the longest running religious television broadcast in the world!

We want your congregation to know about Faith For Today, producer of the show Lifestyle Magazine and where they can watch us. Would you be willing to share this information in one or two of your upcoming bulletins?

Lifestyle Magazine is a half hour television talk show focused on living a full, healthy and balanced life. It is the second longest show on the air after "Meet the Press." The show features panel discussions, interviews and demonstration segments focused on whole life health, including fitness, nutrition, relationships, outlook and more. This multiple award-winning show reaches a wide age demographic and covers a wide variety of topics. It was recently voted a Top 20 brand influencer for health & fitness on Twitter (above Shape Magazine, GQ and more) by analyst group Onalytica.

Each week, you can view our programs on the following:

- Uplift TV
- Direct TV channel 368 or 378
- Hope Channel
- NRB Network – Tuesdays at 4:30pm on Direct TV Channel 378

General Conference

GC Session Moved to St. Louis, Missouri

The Executive Committee (EXCOM) of the Seventh-day Adventist Church voted Wednesday, February 17, 2021, to move the 2022 General Conference (GC) Session, the quinquennial business meeting of the denomination, from Indianapolis, Indiana to St. Louis, Missouri, United States. The vote comes after GC Management was unexpectedly informed by the city of Indianapolis that the space in Indianapolis was no longer available for the June 6-11, 2022 dates. See news.uccsda.org/GCsession22421 for the rest of the story.

Poetry Corner

This quarter we are exploring poetry which reflects the values of one who is on the Christian journey. If you would like to submit a poem to be shared, please send it by email to the church office at office@eastgateadventist.church or by USPS to our Eastgate SDA Church mail box at 380 N. Tausick Way, Walla Walla, WA 99362, or drop it off on Sabbath at the office. Make sure I have your name and contact information along with the author of the poem and the source where you found it.

Forgive One Another

By Orva Hochstetler

July 1, 2013

Are we drifting along through this life kinda half way asleep,
And all the sins we are committing never cause us to weep?
We feel no need of forgiveness and the forgiving of other too,
But when we come before our Creator then what will we do?

If we have days that seem like we're living our life in vain.
It may be because we are suffering from self- inflicted pain.
Our modern doctors have no cure for this type of disease,
But there is another place to go to put our minds at ease.

We may be holding onto grudges in spite of our intention,
And feel some resentment towards the one who dares
mention,
It's always our own sins that are the hardest for us to see,
And we must kindly forgive one another if we want victory.

We can put up a front by pretending we're doing just fine,
And give everything we have down to our very last dime,
But if we don't forgive others there will be a huge loss,
Our feeble minds are not able to comprehend the cost.

Everything in this world is worth less than our own soul,
And salvation of it needs to be our number one goal.
We can live ever so peacefully and not cause any strife,
But if we aren't forgiving one another we'll miss eternal life.

If Heaven is our goal then the best place for us to start,
Is to have a good honest look at the inside of our heart,
There may be some things there without us even knowing it,
Because they're covered up so well we aren't really showing it.

We need to get on our knees and say an earnest prayer,
Then open God's Word and search for what is in there.
It will teach us the secret we must learn to truly live,
By knowing when to put "for" in front of the word "give."

When Jesus taught us to pray in his sermon on the mount,
He wanted to make clear the one thing that really counts,
If we fail to forgive others for things they do or say,
Then God will have to deal with us in the same way.

As Jesus was suffering for us on the cross at Calvary,
He showed us one last time how to treat our enemy,
"Father forgive them for they know not what they do."
What a beautiful example He left for me and for you.

If people throw rocks at us we don't have to get even,
We can turn to our Bible and see the stoning of Stephen,
He just looked up to Heaven and saw Jesus standing there,
"Lord, lay not this sin to their charge," was His final prayer.

Oh how terrible it would be on that great judgment day,
If our heavenly Father would then have to turn us away,
The one important thing in life we had failed to do,
Was the forgiving of one another like God wants us to.

We don't know how long until it'll be our time to die,
Or how soon Jesus will come with His angels in the sky,
So let us all forgive one another while we are still well,
It is the one thing we must do or we'll end up in a state of Hell.

Prayer Time ~ Cherishing People ~ "Pray for one another."

We are inviting you to pray for members and friends of our church family each day. Please keep this in a place that will make it easy for you to remember to pray for one another.

“... we do not make requests of You because we are righteous, but because of Your great mercy. O Lord listen! O Lord forgive! O Lord hear and act!”

(Daniel 9:18 & 19. NIV)
