

Welcome to Eastgate SDA Church!

A message from our guest speaker; our own Chaplain Luke Self

You've probably heard some version of the story of the little girl who for her ninth birthday wanted a diamond bracelet like the one her mother used to wear before she died. The girl's father felt that his late wife would have wanted their daughter to have her diamond bracelet, but he wasn't sure she was old enough to properly care for such a valuable piece of jewelry. So, he devised a plan.

He gave her a fake diamond bracelet for her birthday. She was too young to know the diamonds were fake, but she did notice it wasn't the bracelet her mother used to wear. She didn't mind. It was close enough. She held it close to her heart and squealed, "Thank you, daddy! Thank you!" He smiled and said, "If you take good care of this bracelet for one year, then on your next birthday I will let you exchange it for something better." The daughter didn't know what he meant, but she happily agreed while smiling at the bracelet on her wrist.

A year passed, and the father was pleasantly surprised to see that his daughter had not only taken good care of her bracelet, but still proudly wore it every day. So, he carefully wrapped her mother's real diamond bracelet to give her on her tenth birthday. He said to her, "I'm so proud of you for taking care of your bracelet all year. I have something very special to give you this year, but first you must give me back the bracelet I gave you last year."

Tears welled up in her eyes, and she cried, "But daddy, I love my bracelet! It reminds me of the one mommy used to wear!"

"I know, honey," said the father, "but I want to replace it with something more precious. Do you trust me?"

She thought for a second, and as a tear fell down her cheek she said, "Yes, daddy, I trust you." She slowly removed the bracelet from her wrist and reluctantly handed it to her father. In exchange, he gave her the real diamond bracelet that once belonged to her mother.

Her eyes widened as the new bracelet caught the light and sparkled in a way the other bracelet never did. As she looked closer, she gasped. "Is this...?" she asked.

"Yes," answered her father, "this belonged to your mother, and now it belongs to you."

God offers each one of us a priceless gift purchased by the blood of Jesus. Do we, like the little girl in the story, hesitate to receive it because we're clinging to something else? Join us this Sabbath as we explore Jesus' first sign, in which He invites us to exchange the superficial and temporary enticements of this world for the transformative and eternal gifts He offers.

Worship with us in person or online at our Facebook Page. Those of us worshipping in person are still encouraged to wear a mask and practice physical distancing to prevent the spread of COVID-19.

May God richly bless you this Sabbath!

This week's offering ~ Offering Appeal for June 12, 2021 ~ Women's Ministries

The woman had lost her husband.

Creditors were coming to collect. She had no money to pay them. What was she going to do? She went to the prophet Elisha and told him her trouble. "They will take my two sons as slaves," she cried. The prophet asked one question. "What do you have in your house?" "I have only one small pot of olive oil," she replied.

He instructed her to borrow as many empty vessels as she could from all her friends and neighbors. Then, in private, she should pour that same oil into the borrowed containers. Her sons brought vessel after vessel until there were no more available. She began pouring oil from her little pot. When she filled the last jar, the oil stopped flowing.

The next day she told Elisha what God had done. He told her, "Go, sell the oil, and pay thy debt, and live thou and thy children of the rest." (2 Kings 4:7) When this widow came to the Lord, our Father heard her prayer and intervened.

Today, we have many members who are in debt, and as a result it becomes difficult to contribute tithes and offerings. I want to introduce you to a God who hears the cries of mothers and fathers who are in need. God opens the windows of heaven in our behalf. When you receive His blessings, remember to thank the same God by giving offerings so that others can also receive a blessing.

Eastgate Church News & Events

Coyle Dasher; April 15, 1945 - May 24, 2021

Coyle Dasher passed on Monday, May 24, 2021. A memorial service will held here at Eastgate on Sunday, June 13 at 1:00pm. Coyle was a faithful and kind friend, brother, godfather, dad and husband. He had a great sense of humor, loved classical music, fishing and hunting and had a great talent for figuring out anything mechanical and electronic. Talking about Jesus and what He had done for him was one of the most important things to him and he loved spending time with his family. He is greatly missed and loved by his family and those who had the pleasure of knowing him. He rest now awaiting Jesus' call on that great day when we will all be reunited.

Bible Tours Offered in 2021

We are excited to once again offer Bible Study Tours led by Dr. Carl Cosaert, Dean of the School of Theology and Professor of Biblical Studies at Walla Walla University. Below is a list of tours in 2021 for you to consider:

August 23 - September 3, 2021 — The Steps of Jesus Tour will be an extraordinary journey to Jordan and Israel that will bring the stories of Jesus and the early church to life unlike anything you have experienced before. Walking through the countryside in Galilee where Jesus often taught and seeing the remains of an ancient boat that dates back to Jesus time bring to life Biblical stories in a not to be forgotten way. Visiting the Nazareth Village provides an opportunity to see what life in Galilee would have been like in the time of Jesus.

December 13 – 23, 2021 – The Egypt Bible Tour will find you standing in front of the ancient Pyramids of Giza experiencing the same awe that Joseph felt when he stood before them nearly four thousand years ago. Visiting the spectacular monuments in ancient Thebes you will impress you with the courage and faith Moses had to have in God in order to stand up to the mighty Pharaoh of Egypt.

You will encounter many more experiences than those listed. Dr. Cosaert will be both your teacher and guide for all three tours. He has carefully chosen the best sites, hotel accommodations and restaurants to ensure your tour will be an amazing experience. For a complete itinerary and cost for the tour or tours you would like to join, please email Sharon Searson at sharons@uccsda.org or go to www.adventours.org.

Late Arriving News

Walla Walla University News

LATE ARRIVING NEWS ~ COMMUNITY GARDEN OPPORTUNITY

My name is Megan Lersbak, and I'm a project manager for the Walla Walla University Enactus Community Garden. We have been working to get the garden in a state ready for use, and we're excited to announce that we are now open!

The purpose of this garden is to bring the community together and give people an opportunity to foster a garden without having to worry about finding space on their own property. It is a great opportunity for a class project exploring gardening throughout the summer, or as a way for families to have an outdoor project that explores gardening and growing your own food. If Pathfinders is currently running this could be a great activity for them as well!

The garden is located on a beautiful piece of property right beside the fire station. We would be appreciative if you could let your congregation know through a newsletter, bulletin or email if possible.

Or, if you're interested in leasing a garden bed this season, sign up at <https://forms.gle/iKtU4YbVvHzYzntR6>. We have had a donor to help pay for the beds so this summer's price is only $10 per plot! If you have any questions, feel free to email either me at megan.lersbak@wallawalla.edu or WWU Enactus at wwu.enactus@gmail.com.
