

Welcome to Eastgate SDA Church!

A message from Pastor Eric Saylor

The 92nd Psalm is called a “Song for the Sabbath day” and begins this way: “It is good to praise the Lord and make music to your name, O Most High...” This Sabbath we’ll be gathering to do just that! We, the Body of Christ will gather, in person and online to worship, sing, study, and fellowship.

This Sabbath we’ll be blessed by a sermon from our friend Pastor Luke Self who will explore “The Power of Weakness” with us.

You’re welcome to join in for worship! If you come in person please, please wear a mask! Our healthcare system is stretched to the breaking point. We need to do everything we can to care for each other and support our healthcare providers.

You can also join in online through our Facebook Page. Leave a comment if you do!

~Pastor Eric

This Weekend: August 28, 2021 Pastor Luke Self:

Next Weekend: September 4, 2021 Retired Pastor Ken Crawford continues our sermon series.

Ken and Colleen Crawford began their ministry more than 4 decades ago as volunteer workers for Siberian Eskimos in the Alaskan arctic. They lived on “St. Lawrence Island, a remote island that lies in the Bering Sea, 35 miles off the coast of Siberia. Since that time, they have dedicated much of their ministry to advancing the work in Alaska, the last frontier in North America.

Ken holds a Bachelor of Theology and a Master’s degree in Marriage and Family Counseling. He is an author, bush pilot and leadership consultant. Colleen is a nurse, who has worked extensively with the Native Health system in Alaska. They have two children, David and Heather, both born in Alaska.

Pastor Ken was President of the Alaska Conference for the last 12 years, retiring in 2016 and settling in College Place, WA.

Pastor Ken is still known as a Master Storyteller for children. His first book, “Yuki” has been published in countries around the world and in many languages. His recently released a fourth Alaska adventure book “Bing”, is designed to teach children about a loving Creator-God who is their true Father.

OFFERING OF THE DAY ~ August 28, 2021 ~ Upper Columbia Conference Advance

On April 14, 1912, the Titanic scraped an iceberg on the starboard side, cutting into the ship.

That night, Pastor John Harper grabbed his six-year-old daughter Nana and placed her into a lifeboat. He looked her in the eyes and said, "One day we will see each other again."

As the boat sank, Pastor John swam to various people to ask, "Are you saved?"

One young man replied, "No, I am not."

Pastor John took off his life jacket, threw it to the man, and said, "You need this more than I do."

Pastor John continued to swim and lead people to Jesus until he sank into the frigid waters.

Four years later in a church meeting in Hamilton, Canada, a young man by the name of Aquilla Webb told the story. He said, "I am here tonight because of Pastor John's sacrifice."

Today, we can also help others who are sinking in life's cold, dark waters.

"I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service." Romans 12:1

God may never ask us to give up our lives. But we all have an opportunity to sacrifice as we share in God's work. When we give to the Upper Columbia Conference Advance, we are throwing life jackets to others by giving them the opportunity to accept Jesus into their lives. Give today that others may be saved.

Outreach Workshop 2.0 – September 11, Sabbath Afternoon

“For the Son of Man came to seek and to save those who are lost.”

After the worship service we will share a COVID-safe meal in the back yard (served by mask and glove-wearing servers), provided by the church.

This is a follow up to our meeting on August 21. If you are hesitant, you are also welcome to eat at home and return for the outreach workshop.

After 1:00pm we will begin the workshop where we will continue to develop a vision of how we can share the gospel with our community and the world.

Outdoor Church coming September 25 at Harris Park, South fork of the Walla Walla River

Plan to join the gathering up the South fork of the Walla Walla River on Sabbath September 25. Plan to gather in small groups at 10:00am and spend time in our Sabbath School study subjects. At 11:15 we will start our church service with praise singing. Bring your instruments to add praise! We may need a sweater or light jacket but we will enjoy the first weekend of autumn after this summer of heat!

Following our worship service we will feast on the picnic meals which we prepare for our family units. This is NOT a potluck meal. We will share the outdoor dining facilities of open green grassy spaces!

Some may organize a walk/hike up the river trail for a time during the afternoon or you may choose to stretch out in your lawn recliners and spend some quality social time. Create an interactive social time that will introduce yourself to members you may not yet know!

We, EAC, will have the area reserved for our use all day so you may plan for a picnic supper too if you are so inclined!?!

Harris Park is 40 minutes from the Eastgate church and 21.7 miles. It is specifically located at 78689 S Fork Walla Walla River Rd, Milton-Freewater, OR 97862

Forged: Wrought in the Fire – A Weekend For Men Who Don't Go To Retreats

Our second annual men's retreat for men who don't like going to retreats is coming up September 24-26 at Camp MiVoden. Early bird registration ends September 1. Forged is a weekend event sponsored by Summit Northwest Ministries, created by men who don't normally go to retreats. We feel the Christian life was not meant to be dull or boring. Instead, it is an adventure requiring bravery, courage, and grit. It is filled with battles to be fought and challenges to be overcome. However, the thought of sitting in meetings all day may not be what we're looking for. Forged is about connecting with a group of guys, participating in some weekend shenanigans, supporting and challenging each other to reach our full potential. Whether you are a guy who likes to blow things up, or one that would rather hang out and heckle those who do, this weekend is for you. We want to be better bachelors, boyfriends, husbands, fathers, and followers of Christ, and we plan to have a good time doing it. For more information see news.uccsda.org/forged8421.
